Headline:
A fine day for many, rain for some later.

Today:
A dry and bright morning with light winds and plenty of hazy sunshine. Slightly cloudier in the afternoon, particularly in the southeastern counties as rain migrates northeastward across Essex and Suffolk, perhaps heavy at times. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Tonight:
A dry and largely clear evening and night with light winds but cold, with patchy low cloud over the Chilterns and a chance of ground frost in rural parts. Minimum temperature 2 deg C (36 deg F).

Thursday:
A dry and largely sunny start to the day but cloud will move in from the south, bringing a spell of showery rain, locally heavy, during the afternoon and evening. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Mostly cloudy with afternoon showers Friday and Saturday, frosty with clear skies in-between. Snow showers spreading inland on Saturday night, heavier and more frequent on Sunday. Risk of coastal gales .
